MODIFICATION OF CONDITIONS:

On September 30, 2013, due to the not answering truthfully the inquiries of this officer, the Court modified the defendant conditions of release to include placement in a Residential Re-Entry Center for a period of 60 days.

DATE SUPERVISION COMMENCED:

August 12, 2013

The above probation officer has reason to believe that the supervised releasee has violated the terms and conditions of his supervision under such circumstances as may warrant revocation. These conditions are:

- A Standard Condition: While on supervised release you shall not commit another Federal, state or local crime and shall not illegally possess a controlled substance. Revocation of probation and supervised release is mandatory for possession of a controlled substance.

On April 1, 2016, Mr. Hill was arrested by the Philadelphia Police Department and charged with a felony count of manufacturing, delivering with intent and a misdemeanor count of knowingly possessing a controlled substance.

According to the police report, officers observed a black Ford 500 with dark tint on the windows being operated in a high narcotics area. Due to the tint on the windows officers conducted a traffic stop of the vehicle. Officers on the scene recognized the defendant as being a former narcotics and firearms offender.

Based on the officers knowledge of the area and Mr. Hill's background, the officers called a K-9 unit to the scene. The K-9 performed an exterior "sniff" of vehicle. The K-9 gave a positive reaction for the presence of narcotics. Based on this information, the officer searched the defendant's car and found two zip locked baggies of alleged crack cocaine. This substance later tested positive for cocaine base. The total weight of the narcotics found was .5 grams, with a street value of $20.00. Also found in the vehicle was $900.00 of U.S. currency and found on the defendant's person was an additional $779.00.

Later on April 1, 2016, the defendant was released from custody on his own recognizance; however, on April 6, 2016, the Philadelphia County Probation Office, which also supervises Mr. Hill, issued a warrant for Mr. Hill's arrest. Later that day, the defendant reported to the County Probation Office was detained. Mr. Hill is currently being held at the Curran-Fromhold Correctional Facility in Philadelphia. A May 3, 2016, preliminary hearing has been scheduled in Municipal Court on this matter.
